

Film Noir

Pinot Noir

2007

In the 1940's and 1950's, film and life took on darker, more erotic characteristics. The femme fatales, heroes and corrupt villains took center stage on screen, just as they do in most winery tasting rooms. Just look around and you'll likely agree.

Film Noir weaves longing, corruption and fateful decisions blended with seduction, shadowy images and tension. Sounds a lot like the wine industry, right?

The Legacy Collection is our series of wines based on historical events of years past. Our Pinot Noir, we call Film Noir, represents every piece of what the classic movies once did: temptation, greed, materialism, cynicism and style.

Cherry, raspberry and vanilla round out the nose. Subtle, well integrated oak and smooth tannins lend way to the distinct hint of cocount that is reminiscent of walking into The Mirage in Las Vegas. Enjoy now through 2015.
